

Elliott Street Apartments, Auckland NEW ZEALAND

Elliott Street Apartments are fully set up to make your stay in Auckland totally independent and comfortable.

On the two lower floors, there is an assortment of shops and restaurants including Tony's, Auckland's oldest restaurant. The building is fitted with modern security systems. Step outside and you will be in the heart of vibrant Auckland City, a delight to explore.

The Elliott Street Apartments building is a beautifully restored heritage building with a grand marble entrance, combining old world charm, with all the modern facilities. All apartments have a high 15' stud with pressed metal ceilings, carpet and native New Zealand Kauri floors.

These apartments are fully furnished and equipped throughout with all you need for an extended stay.

